SUPERPHOSPHATE.

The Cumberland Superphosphate is highly recommended by all, and will fit it at a reduced price if taken this month.

The children of both, so closely connected,

Ought never with each to be disengaged,

The two should love from sunset till morn,

And the two in return, the ten to be born.

In twenty-four years you'll be nearly full grown,

And doubtless your wild oats will then all be sown.

But better not harvest such sowings as these,

Rather gather in hope, your next wedding sheaves.

The next one in course, the wedding of gold,

Which most of us here, I trust, will behold,

Will afford you a harvest of rich golden grain

Tasted of sweet taste, which you garner in vain.

In your silver wedding day find true test,

Be it ever so long, the other to bear.

You live in true love, and not in flirtation,

And have no desire to change your relation.

Or that this couple may live to behold

That beautiful day, their nuptials of gold;

May the bride and groom and tender children

Be there,

On that sweet occasion, its good things to share.

Rather gather in hope, your next wedding sheaves.
